Day 452
 Sad news today. It has become apparent I'm the last remaining member of our gang. The 1st to go was Cive, who couldn't take the confines of our fort & disappeared into the brutal wasteland one night...

Then Merv stopped showering & eating & taking off his pants when he uses the w.c.

Dan, Aaron & Sam have become increasingly sadistic... & have grown out matching mustaches.

KILL!

The boss never goes out. All he ever does is play gameboy in his quarters.

FUCKING TETRIS

Our pet mascot, Gran, thinks he's a human.

& now the only person that was left to keep me company has lost his mind as well.

He said he's in LOVE.
